DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The invention is directed to method for designing 2-D graphics for use on 3-D cartons. Claims 1, 8, 14 and 16-17 identifies the uniquely distinct features of "identifying regions of graphics to be printed on said carton that are likely to experience printing ink bleeding and compensating for such bleeding in laying out said regions of said graphics"; "clipping mask to avoid printing on a surface of said carton that is not visible when fabrication of said carton is complete". The closest prior art, Score! X (Training Manual and User Guide, product of Dimensional Impressions Score! X, © 2002 Dimensional CAD/CAM Systems, Inc, Encino, CA) teaches creating a three-dimensional computer-generated image of a carton on a computer monitor; designing graphics to cover surface regions of carton. Either singularly or in combination with other cited references fails to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

The prior art, Score! X discloses designing graphics and superimposing said designed graphics onto the 3-D carton and performing modifications of graphics covering relevant regions of said 3-D carton. Prior art, Tacke (US 2003/0098994) teaches determining and outputting computer-readable data containing designed graphics for 3-D cartons but both prior arts fails to disclose identifying regions of graphics to be printed on said carton that are likely to experience printing ink bleeding and compensating for such bleeding in laying out said regions of said graphics; clipping mask to avoid printing on a surface of said carton that is not visible when fabrication of said carton is complete.

The meaning of the sentence "identifying regions of graphics to be printed on said carton that are likely to experience printing ink bleeding and compensating for such bleeding in laying out said regions of said graphics"; "clipping mask to avoid printing on a surface of said carton that is not visible when fabrication of said carton is complete" is defined in applicant's specification, paragraph's 22, 28, 37, and fig. 5.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
